This year we are offering several different types of "shops" instead of seminars or workshops.

Pro shops (PR) are designed for professional development;

Net shops (NT) are for networking information among others with similar interest;

Play shops (PL) are fun and teach how to have fun with others;

Soul shops (SO) are for personal spiritual development and Youth shops (YO) are for youth that are attending with their families.

Look for the two-letter designation beside each shop title.

Spouses and family members accompanying registered conference attendees may choose the “Family Rate” which waives the registration fee. This special rate is only for persons who are not camp and retreat leaders planning to attend workshops at the national gathering. Those registered for the family rate may attend plenary worship times. This is a very intentional option provided by the National Camp and Retreat Committee to support families who want to come together to enjoy time away as a family. Note: All persons coming must pay housing and meals because that amount goes directly to the center and must be covered. Everyone must therefore register.
