

Prayer from John Wesley

Day by day we magnify you, O Lord,
    who makes every day an addition to your mercies.
We bless you for preserving us today.
O cause us to hear your loving-kindness;
    for in you do we trust.
Cause us to know the way wherein we shall go,
    for we lift up our souls to you.
O take not your Holy Spirit from us;
    but direct all our ways to please you our God.
Help us to see your power,
    to own your presence,
    to admire your wisdom,
        and to love your goodness in all your creatures;
    and by all, draw our hearts still nearer to you.
Such your mercy and grace we beg for ourselves,
    and all ours and yours everywhere
in our great Mediator's blessed words:

"Our Father..."
