Donald W. Joiner is an ordained clergyperson, a certified Financial Planner, and a Certified Planned Giving Specialist. He has served churches in Wisconsin, Illinois, and Michigan. He has been with the General Board of Discipleship, The United Methodist Church, since 1985. From 1985 until 1999 he was Director of Stewardship for the denomination. As such he led the denomination in understanding fund development, planned giving, and clergy finance. Currently he serves as head of the Office of Operations and Fund Development for the General Board of Discipleship.

He has earned advanced certification as a Certified Financial Planner® and a Certified Planned Giving Specialist.

He has served on the national Board of the Ecumenical Center For Stewardship Studies, National Association of Stewardship Leaders, and the National Association of United Methodist Foundations. He was the founding chairman of the Habitat For Humanity, Hendersonville, TN., served on the Board of Habitat For Humanity of Sumner County, and the board of the YMCA of Sumner County. He has been an active Mason, serving in leadership capacities in all branches of the Masonic order, for which he was coroneted a Thirty-Third Degree Mason, in 1979.

He is a prolific writer and author of: Creating A Climate for Giving, Stewardship: A Rainbow of Possibility; Christians and Money: A Guide To Personal Finance, Securing a Financial Future, and Can I Afford To Retire. He has co-authored: Celebrate Giving; Celebrate and Visit; Celebrate Together; The Abingdon Guide To Funding Ministry, volumes 1, 2, and 3, Achieving Dreams Beyond The Budget, Funding Ministry on Purpose, and The Planned Giving Handbook. In addition he is a contributing writer to: The Interpreter, Clergy Finance Letter, The Clergy Journal, Celebrate Stewardship, The Circuit Rider, and Christian Ministry.
